ESTABLISHED 1892 APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA THURSDAY MAY 21, 1936

rk Appropriation Passed Yesterday

mation was received here this morning that final passage of the ...e appropriation for the restoration of the famous Surrender ...e here and the making of a 3,00 acre national park, was ...d yesterday. Senator Carter Glass had the item added in se... nate committee and secured its passage by the senate, and repre... sentative P. H. Drewry steered the appropriation through the house.

The money is now available, and so far as "Uncle Sam" is concerned work on the project can start to... morrow.

In addition to providing a tre... mendouous boost to al business by the spending of the $100,000 here, it is roughly estimated that the presence of the restoration and the park at the Old Court house would mean from $75,000 to $100,000 each and every year to Appomattox co... unty.

The only hitch in the immediate beginning of the work is that the resettlement administration has been delayed in the purchase of the land needed. Alarmed by the delay of nearly a year in getting the land in the hands of the federal park service, Robert Ramsey, of the Lynchburg chamber of commerce, and Joel W. Flood, president of the park association, went to Farmville this week to interview J. P. Andrews of the resettlement administration. He gave them great encouragement by declaring that a survey of the area had been completed and that sixty per cent of the park would be under option by the end of this week, and that all of it would be ready to turn over to the federal park service by July 1. If that schedule is followed work on the restoration will begin this summer.

It is to hoped that no effort will be spared to complete the final details of land transfer and that in a few months Appomattox can take its righeful place as a national mecca for those who respect the memory of the great consummated here on April 9, 1865.

At The Isis

George Bancroft, virile star of many a mighty epic, plays true to form in his latest picture, "Hell Ship Morgan." With Bancroft in the movie is the blonde goddess, Ann Sotsern and the popular Victor Jory. The story is thrill packed with exciting sequences following closely upon the other. Bancroft as the hardy ship's captain is perfectly cast and strides with all his old time strength through the film. He is a master of men but hardly the master of himself when beautiful Ann Sothern enters the scene. A battle for her with Victor Jory as the opponent and candidate for her hand ensues and the outcome is unexpected and thrillingly executed.

George Bancroft in "Hell Ship Morgan" is at the Isis Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Lloyd Nolan and Peggy Conklin contribute a sprightly bit of acting in "One Way Ticket" which is at the Isis Theatre next Wednesday. An adventurer, played by Lloyd Nolan, is confronted constantly with danger imperilling his very life, but surmounts every obstacle in his way until he meets the all-star and lovely Peggy Conklin. The drama reaches a high pitch and sustains a rare amount of interest throughout.

Bruce Cabot and Ann Sothern are co-starred in a brilliant comedy-drama, "Don't Gamble With Love" at the Isis next Thursday.

That popular man of the West, Hopalong Cassidy, alias Bill Boyd, is with us again and this time it's "Three on the Trail" which comes to the Isis next Friday and Saturday.

The set has been to the growing library of the Pamplin school and will be of tremendouous value to all departments of study.

Pamplin Town Elections Will Be Held June 9

Seven In Race For Six Places On Pamplin Town Council

Put this down in the little red book.... Pamplin doesn't make the same mistake twice. Two years ago the town forgot all about its town election and the time went by before somebody thought about it.

But this is another year....

Pamplin will have its election on June 9. Mayor F. H. Lubin has no opponent for reelection to that place, but the following seven are running for the six places on the town council:

W. B. Black, W. R. Brightwell, J. M. Inge, R. S. Baldwin, T. C. Ligon, J. D. McDearmon and C. W. Slayton.

LOOK AFTER TERRACES

The importance of maintaining terraces and outlets at this season is being stressed by V. E. Hillman in charge of engineering for the soil conservation service in this state. Ridges of the structures that are comparatively new have not settled and are not as compact as they will be later, and these need special attention.

Repair work should include clecning out the water channel and building up broken or weakened places in the ridges. The outlets should also be inspected to see that they are carrying away the run-off without excessive silting or cutting.

Proper plowing is most important in terrace maintenance. Begin on the top of one terrace ridge and back-furrow or bed up the entire ridge until the upper furrow is in the center of the water channel. Follow the same procedure with the next terrace, then start a back furrow between the two about 15 feet above the water channel and parallel to it. Work furrow this way until the channel is again reached, thus leaving a dead furrow in the water channel. Any remaining land can then be plowed out, leaving another dead furrow near the upper terrace. By this method the terrace ridg is made broader and higher with each plowing and the water channel is kept open. The channel is also broadened by moving the dead furrow up or down the hill with each successive plowing.

Buckingham

Buckingham, May 20.— The U. D. C. Chapter of Buckingham held a special meeting at the court house last Wednesday to make plans for the annual county home coming day celebration to be held on Memorial Day at the Last Camp site near the court house.

The Rev. Churchill Gibson, of Richmond, will deliver the address of the occasion, Mrs. Charles E. Bolling, past president of the state U. D. C. will speak on "The Daughters of the Confederacy." Bishop A. C. Thompson will among the noted guests. Mrs. C. F. LeSuer is president of the Buckingham chapter.

AT THE PARAMOUNT

Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray continue in their latest picture, "The Princess Comes Across" with the same devil may care, harum scarum behavior is in evidence throughout. It is a witty, frothy, champagne-like bit of tomfoolery with laughs falling as frequently as chips from a log in a saw mill.

The most beloved musical of our times, "Show Boat" reaches the screen again and climaxes even its former pinnacle of fame. With a burst of color, song, dance and a sprinkling of joyous happiness throughout, "Show Boat" gains a new its rightful place in the hearts of show going America. The cast includes Irene Dunn, Charles Winninger, Paul Robeson, Helen Morgan and others.

"Show Boat" is at the Paramount Theatre next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Fridty and Saturday.

Work Sheets Must Be Filed By May 30th

Hudgins Says Payments To Be Enough To Pay Farmers Taxes

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration has announced that all work sheets for the Agricultural Conservation program in the East Central Region should be completed and submitted at the county office not later than May 30, R. B. Hudgins stated today.

Farmers who expect to cooperate in the 1936 Agricultural Conservation program are being asked to submit work sheets before this date in order that the necessary summaries for the county may be prepared. These summaries are required before it can be determined whether the figures on the work sheets are within the county limits, and before individual farmers can be furnished with the soil-depleting bases for their farms.

Mr. Hudgins has suggested that in order to avoid last minute congestion in the county office, it would be advisable for farmemrs who desire to submit work sheets to do so at once.

Mr. Hudgins believes that every cooperating farmer in this county will receive in payments this year an amount equal to his taxes, and in some cases more than three times his taxes.
